

H&R Block Financial Advisors is now an Ameriprise Financial company.
A new name, the same strong commitment.

Welcome to the Ameriprise Financial family.

What this means to you.

- > You will experience minimal changes as a result of this transaction. Your existing financial advisor will continue to work with you, offering the personalized service and financial guidance you've come to expect.
- > You will also have access to a wider array of products and services to help you reach your financial goals.
- > The most visible change is the new company name. You can expect to begin seeing the Ameriprise Financial logo on your statements with your current account number and other company correspondence.

Questions?

Please contact your financial advisor at their current phone number if you have any questions about these changes.

Ameriprise Financial has more than 110 years of history helping clients reach their financial goals. We look forward to serving your ongoing needs.
