

Fees and charges

Ameriprise Bank, FSB (Bank) offers personal trust services to Ameriprise Financial clients. The Bank provides administration and custodial management services for trusts and agency accounts. Working with your Ameriprise financial advisor, the trust team provides:

- Full fiduciary oversight of trust accounts when acting as trustee
- Periodic statements and tax reporting
- Custodial services
- Day-to-day account administration
- Agency services
- Other services as requested

Following are the bank fees and charges for the services listed. Linked accounts refer to one or more related accounts or trusts with the same grantors or beneficiaries.

Advisor-based investment model

Your Ameriprise financial advisor will provide investment advisory services. The Bank provides oversight of the investment advisory services and is responsible for the administration of the trust.

The Bank will charge a fee based on the value of assets under management, as indicated in the chart below. The investment management fees established by your financial advisor are charged separately from the Bank's fees.^{1,2}

Ameriprise Bank, FSB Personal Trust Services ("APTS") relies upon its affiliate, American Enterprise Investment Services, Inc. ("AEIS"), as its agent or as its principal for trade execution services in trust accounts. AEIS receives a fee from APTS to custody fiduciary assets and to execute, settle and clear securities and money movement transactions that are executed for customers of AFS and APTS, including managed accounts.

Breakpoints and fee waivers are based on value of invested assets owned in trust. Value of real estate, personal property, promissory notes and other unique assets are not included when determining breakpoints and fee waivers. Other expenses incurred as a result of administrative duties required by the trust can be charged to the trust as permitted by law. Other assets held in trust may be subject to separate fee schedules that will be established when the Personal Trust Services application is accepted.

Neither Ameriprise Bank, FSB nor AFS financial advisors are authorized to give legal or tax advice. For specific legal or tax matters, clients should consult with their own legal and/or tax advisors.
