D. Living Lawful Children with Right of Survivorship Per Stirpes.

Beneficiary is: The children legally born to, or legally adopted by, the owner equally, provided, however, that if a child of the owner has died before the owner, the share which the child would have received if he or she survived the owner will be paid to his or her legally born to, or legally adopted by, children of that deceased child, per stirpes.

Additional Instructions for Options E and F

- If an attachment is required to complete the beneficiary designation, make sure the attachment contains the account number, signature date and all appropriate signatures.
- If percentages are used, make sure the percentage equals 100% for both primary and secondary beneficiaries.
- If a Testamentary Trust is designated, please provide the article and paragraph number from the Will in the designation. The execution of this designation requires that your Will be admitted to probate and the Trustee(s) make claim for the proceeds accompanied by due proof of the trustee(s)' appointment. In the event there are multiple testamentary trusts and the trust is not clearly identified, settlement may be delayed because a court order may be required at time of settlement.
- Unless specifically noted on this form, all designations will be considered to be equally and with rights of survivorship.
- All beneficiary designations are subject to the approval of the corporate office.

Part 6 Marital Status and Consent of Spouse

Owner Marital Status (Select One)

Single Married (See Consent of Spouse.) Widowed Divorced

Consent of spouse must be signed if the following conditions are present:

(a) Community property state: You live in a community property state (Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington and Wisconsin), your spouse is living and you are NOT designating your spouse as the sole primary beneficiary;

OR

(b) For 403(b) plans that are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), your spouse is living and you are NOT designating your spouse as the sole primary beneficiary.

If you are unsure if your plan is subject to ERISA (and consequently spousal consent requirements) check with your plan sponsor. (usually your employer).

Generally:

- 403(b) plans sponsored by a governmental entity such as a public school or university are not subject to ERISA
- 403(b) plans sponsored by a church or qualified church controlled organization are generally not subject to ERISA, however some exceptions may apply
- 403(b) plans sponsored by a 501(c)(3) (non-profit) organization may be subject to ERISA depending on the design and operation of the plan.

! The spouse's signature must be witnessed by either the Plan Sponsor/Administrator or a Notary Public.

I have reviewed the above beneficiary designation and, as the spouse of the owner, I consent to the payment of my spouse's interest to the above named beneficiary(ies), in the event of the death of my spouse.

If this consent relates to a plan subject to ERISA, I understand that if I were to decline to sign this consent, as the owner's surviving spouse, I would be entitled to 100% of any beneficial account at the time of the owner's death. I waive any rights I now have, or may later be held to have, in such interest. I realize my consent applies only to this designation and does not apply to any further designation.

Part 9 Disclosures and Signatures

Change of Beneficiary

The undersigned hereby revokes any and all prior beneficiary designations and/or elections by the Owner(s) of a method of settlement for the beneficiary of the proceeds upon the death. Any amount payable to a beneficiary after the Retirement Date will be paid as provided in the Annuity Payment Plan then in effect. To determine when the death benefit will be payable to the beneficiary, refer to instruction form 33032-inst.

Right of Revocation Reserved. The right to revoke this instrument and to change the designated beneficiaries upon written notice to, and acceptance by, the Company is reserved to the Owner without the consent of the revocable beneficiaries. Unless a Pre-Election for Payment of Death Benefits (form 200488) is signed, dated and received at the same time as this form, election of a different settlement option, consistent with the Policy/Contract provisions, may be made after the death of the individual indicated in the General Instructions based on the type of Policy/Contract by the beneficiary or class of beneficiaries then immediately entitled to demand and receive full payment of the proceeds. (See Pre-Election of Death Benefits Form for acceptable contracts.)

Spendthrift Clause. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, no beneficiary entitled to any payment hereunder shall have the right to withdraw, surrender for cash, borrow against, commute, anticipate, encumber, alienate, or assign such payment, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, nor shall such payment, or any part thereof, or any interest herein be in any way subject to such person's debts, contracts, or engagements, nor to any judicial process to levy upon or attach the same payment thereof. No provision of this contract or beneficiary designation shall be construed to prevent the owner or the beneficiary from assigning its interest in this contract to a nursing home or a government agency to qualify for government assistance programs. This clause shall be effective to the extent permitted by law.
