

Advisor Sells RIA to Ameriprise Financial as Part of His Retirement Strategy

As part of the deal, advisor Dr. Marvin Appel joined Siena Wealth Advisory Group, a well-established Ameriprise team led by Private Wealth Advisors Matt Mandell and Brian White

MINNEAPOLIS – April 28, 2022, – Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (NYSE: AMP) today announced that investment adviser Dr. Marvin Appel recently sold his RIA to Siena Wealth Advisory Group, a well-established team in Ameriprise’s branch channel led by Private Wealth Advisors Matthew Mandell, CFP®, CRPC®, and Brian White, CFP®, CRPC®. Appel’s team, called Signalert Asset Management, LLC, has $265 million in assets and is located in Great Neck, New York. He chose to sell the practice to Ameriprise as part of his plan for a smooth transition to retirement. Appel will join Siena Wealth for one year – an arrangement that allows him to continue to serve clients and facilitate a smooth transition to a team that shares his passion for exceptional service.

Prior to joining financial services, Appel trained as an anesthesiologist at Harvard Medical School and Johns Hopkins Hospital and earned a PhD in biomedical engineering from Harvard University. In 1996, he switched careers and joined the RIA his father started in 1973. After growing the investment business for 26 years, Appel decided it was time to sell his practice to the right firm and team who could take care of his clients so he could gradually transition into retirement. He contacted a third-party search firm who helped him complete extensive due diligence on his options and connected him to Siena Wealth.

An ideal outcome for all parties

The deal was an ideal outcome for Appel and Siena Wealth. Appel found a team that would continue to provide a high level of service, as well as provide development opportunities for his team members. For Siena Wealth, the arrangement helped them add staff members and capacity quickly while further expanding their footprint to serve more families with sound financial advice.

“Siena Wealth’s focus is providing personal, first-class service to clients, and we quickly saw that their commitment mirrors our own,” said Appel. “That synergy coupled with their diligent investment process and deep financial planning capabilities from Ameriprise sets our clients up well for the future. I feel confident leaving my clients and my team in the trustful care of Ameriprise and Siena Wealth when I eventually retire.”

Reflecting on the acquisition, Mandell said, “We joined forces with Marvin and his team to build an even more comprehensive bench of investment management and financial planning expertise. Our expanded practice is well positioned to continue to address clients’ complex financial situations now and into the future.”

Siena Wealth employs a combined team of 10 advisors who has $1.3 billion in client assets out of their office locations in Melville, New York and Naples, Florida.

Since 2016, Ameriprise has helped more than 275 external advisors sell their practices, seamlessly transition their clients to an Ameriprise advisor, and retire on their own terms.
