Part 4 New Owner Information

- New owners must sign on Page 6.
- In general, if you are married, you must name your spouse as either a joint owner (non-qualified contracts only) or as the sole primary beneficiary, in order for them to be able to continue this contract following your death.
- For trust ownerships: Complete the Trustee Certificate form (Form 273420) or send a copy of the title page and signature page of the Trust Document(s) that identifies the name of the trust, date of the trust, name(s) of the Trustee(s), and whether the trustees are authorized to act alone. If this is not provided, we will not be able to process this request.
- For corporate ownerships: A copy of the Corporate Resolution must accompany this transfer request. If this is not provided, we will not be able to process this request.

* If this transfer of ownership results in a trust or corporation as the new owner, you will no longer have access to your annuity contract information at riversource.com.

Part 5 Change Annuitant on Non-Qualified Annuity

- Change of annuitant may not be allowed on all contracts. Refer to your contract to confirm availability.
- The current contract owner must be a person (not allowed if current owner is a trust, entity, etc.).
- The current annuitant must be alive.
- The new annuitant must be an owner.
- No ownership changes must have occurred within the past 12 months unless due to a documented divorce settlement.
- No successor annuitant can be named.

Part 7 Authorization and Acknowledgements - (Must be signed by all new owners or fiduciaries)

Acceptance of New Contract Owner

- I affirm that I am at least 18 years of age and full legal age in my state of residence.
- I/we acknowledge that we will be bound by the terms of the annuity contract, as are my/our heirs, executors, administrators and successors.
- I/we acknowledge that if a joint owner is added, the current taxpayer will continue as primary taxpayer unless otherwise noted.

The following statements apply to non-qualified annuity accounts owned by a non-natural or corporate owner:

- We, the undersigned as the non-natural/corporate owner listed above, understand that this contract is not treated as an annuity for tax purposes (unless it is held by a trust or other entity as an agent for a natural person within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 72 (u)(1)). As a result, tax deferral is generally not available and therefore, earnings on the contract may be treated as ordinary income received or accrued by the owner during the tax year. The owner/taxpayer is responsible for reporting this income to the Internal Revenue Service.
- In accordance with Internal Revenue Code section 72(s) and contract language, upon the death of the annuitant, the beneficiary will receive the death benefit and the annuity will be terminated based on the terms of the contract. The designated annuitant cannot be changed once the annuity has been issued.
- We understand our obligations with respect to the above mentioned annuity and will abide by them throughout the duration of the annuity.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act Reporting

A FATCA exemption code is required for persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. If you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, no code is required. Otherwise, submit IRS Form W-9 separately.

As used below, the word "I" refers to the new owner who is the taxpayer on the account.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number, and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification Instructions:

As used below, the word "You" refers to the new owner who is the taxpayer on the account.

Check this box if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate),
- or A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Non-U.S. persons should submit the appropriate Form W-8.

Form W-9 and Form W-8 and their instructions are available upon request or on irs.gov.

All New Owners/Fiduciaries of the contract identified in this form must sign here. If adding a joint owner to a contract, both owners must sign. This signature cannot predate notarized signatures in Part 3 (if any).

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
