

State Tax Withholding for Brokerage and Managed Products

This table provides the state tax withholding requirements for distributions taken from IRAs and employer-sponsored retirement plans.

You can work with your financial advisor to take distributions from your plan. Or, call an Ameriprise customer service representative at 800.862.7919 to obtain the required distribution form.

State Withholding Requirements:

- Mandatory: State withholding is required if federal withholding is applied, otherwise it is optional.
- Opt-in: You must indicate you want state taxes withheld, or, state taxes will not be withheld automatically.
- Opt-out: You must indicate you do not want state taxes withheld, or, state taxes will be withheld automatically.
- Form requirement: State rules may require withholding elections in writing; see bold text below.

Opt-in by electing at least the state minimum and less than the maximum. Opt-out by electing no withholding.

*Eligible Rollover Distributions (ERD) are distributions made from employer-sponsored retirement plans (e.g. 401(a) or 403(b) plans) that can be rolled over to an IRA or other employer-sponsored retirement plan. State withholding for ERDs is mandatory where applicable.

Whether or not federal or state taxes are withheld from your distribution, you are responsible for the full payment of any state or local taxes, federal income tax, and any penalties that may apply. You may be responsible for estimated tax payments and could incur penalties if your estimated tax payments are not sufficient.
